How do I calculate the total value for a purchase over a period of time? What about possible extension of a contract?

The total value for a purchase over a period of time is the total dollars spent over the entire period of the order or contract. The entire period of an order or a contract includes both firm term and any possible extension term.

Category:

- Procurement/Payables [1]

Source URL:https://finance.uoguelph.ca/how-do-i-calculate-total-value-purchase-over-period-time-what-about-possible-extension-contract

Links
[1] https://finance.uoguelph.ca/taxonomy/term/107