Controller's Office Training

Financial Reporting System (FRS) Training Module [1]

This training module provides guidance for the Financial Reporting System (FRS). FRS is an online record of the University of Guelph's financial accounts. The data for FRS comes from the University's Oracle accounting system, where all transactions are processed. The system is updated nightly from the University's accounting system and will reflect the previous day's information.

Source URL:https://finance.uoguelph.ca/controllers-office-training

Links
[1] https://finance.uoguelph.ca/finance/frs-training